Yellow Jackets Name Jeff Nowaczyk Head Coach

For Immediate Release: 9:30am Wednesday December 2nd, 2009

Saskatoon, SK - The Saskatoon Yellow Jackets, a member of the Western Major Baseball League, is pleased to announce Jeff Nowaczyk has been named the clubs 2010 Head Coach.

Jeff Nowaczyk is entering his second season as an assistant coach at Northwood University, located in Midland, Michigan, where he works closely with the catchers, hitters and infielders. In December, he will receive his Masters of Business Administration (M.B.A.) from Northwood University.

"I am very excited and appreciative of the opportunity to coach the Saskatoon Yellow Jackets. We have set high expectations for this team. Through hardwork, discipline and fun we will certainly be a very competitive ball club. I look forward to seeing everyone at the ballpark this summer."
comments Jeff Nowaczyk on todays announcement.

Jeff is a Saginaw, Michigan native where he graduated from Swan Valley High School in 2003. In 2001, Jeff led them to their first ever men's baseball Div II State title. Upon graduation from high school, Jeff started his college baseball career at Kellogg Community College and in 2005 he won a MCCA (Michigan Community College Athletic Association) title. The following year he transferred to Northwood University as a catcher. In 2006, he won Northwood baseball's Newcomer of the Year award. After his one year stint as the starting catcher for Northwood University, he transferred once again to Central Michigan University (CMU). In 2008, Jeff finished his playing career at CMU as the starting catcher/ designated hitter. He graduated with a Bachelor of Applied Arts degree with a major in Sports Administration and a minor in Business. After graduating from CMU, He became the Assistant Baseball Coach for the Central Michigan All-Star 18-U team.
